Tax Notice: For customers who apply for rebates that, individually or in combination total $2,000 or more in a tax year, EBMUD requires the submittal of a W-9 form from the person/entity receiving the payment prior to payment. All personal information provided within the W-9 will be kept confidential in accordance with the Consumer Privacy Act and other applicable state and federal law. If the total rebate amounts received are $2,000 or more in a single calendar year, a 1099 form will be issued in accordance with Federal Internal Revenue Service requirements. Most rebates are excluded from gross income by state law and are not subject to state income tax, but these rebates may be taxable income under federal law. The determination of whether the rebate may be subject to federal or state tax is dependent on several variables, and it is recommended that you contact a tax professional for further information.
